The Coast Valleys Gas and Electric company which supplies Carmel, has obtained from the Railroad Commission authority to issue $125,000 of its first mortgage six percent bonds, due March 1, 1952. The bonds are to be sold at not less than 85 percent of their face value, plus accrued interest, and the proceeds are to be devoted to reimbursing the company's treasury for eatnings expended.

The Carmel Summer School of Art, under the auspices of the Carmel Club of Arts and Craft, begins its sixth session on Monday, July 7 and continues eight weeks. Miss M DeNeal Morgan is director and instructor. The school specializes on outdoor landscape and figure work, and still life painting in the studio.

Prof. Ralph Johannot is to conduct a summer art class here, in the studio now being constructed on Ocean Avenue at Camino Real, by Mrs. Maude Arndt. Miss Ruth Tillman of Cleveland, Ohio, is to be associated with Prof. Johannot. The classes will take up design, decorative interpretation of landscape, embroidery, etc.

Mrs. Francis Montgomery will shortly return to Carmel to stay. She was here this week for a few days, and is now in San Francisco packing up.

Promoter W. T. ("Ralph") Evans announces a big all-star card for his boxing show, to be staged at the Monterey Theatre tonight.

Occupants of the Alden cottage last week included Mrs. F. Mast, Miss F. A. Mead, Mrs. C. M. Wisener, and H. D. Peel. These folks are from Santa Clara county, and were here about five years ago.

Clarence Risley has left Carmel for good. His mother is to be married shortly at Tacoma, and the young man will probably get into the theatrical game in the Northwest.

Mrs. Estelle Tillman, who has been here three months, occupying the Yard cottage, has left for Bakersfield for a visit. She will return to Columbus, Ohio, via the Panama Canal.

A proclamation has been issued by Governor William D. Stephens, setting aside, Saturday, May 24th as "Franco-American Children's Fete Day." Governor Stephens expressed the hope that "on that day celebrations will be held throughout the state in which the children will take a particular part, and that the ties of sympathy between our children and those of France will be particularly emphasized."

Invitations have been issued to Carmel ladies requesting their presence at the Carmel Church on Thursday, May 29, at a "Neighbors' Tea." It is the purpose of the meeting to enroll members of the Womans Auxiliary, to promote sociability in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Willard and daughter are again with us for the summer. They arrived from Redlands last week and are occupying the Duffy bungalow.

Stuart A. Work the enterprising young hardware dealer of Pacific Grove announced a fishing contest some time ago, and he now gives the public the result of that sporty proposition. C. E. Lovejoy and Leonard Williams of Monterey have won the two $4.00 merchandise prizes, and N. B. Burlingame and Lawrence Lyons of Pacific Grove the two $3.50 prizes.

Memorial Day, May 30, comes on Friday, and already Carmel is assured of a large influx of week-enders.

Herbert Hand is expected home from Washington, D. C., on Sunday. And what d'ye think? He brings a wife with him. Well Herbert is 22 and a hustler.

Announcements of the marriage of Miss Ellen B. Cornell and Glendon A. Longstreet, in New York, on April 20, have been received here. Miss Cornell was here with her parents last summer.

Dr. and Mrs A. B. Werner entertained a select company of young folks at the Waterbury cottage last Saturday evening.

Sherman B. Wilson of Hollywood has joined his daughter here, and they occupy a little cottage in the pines. Mr. Wilson is 81 years young. Years ago, back in Minnesota he knew the father of F. R. Bechdolt, when both were engaged in educational work.

Another of our boys has reached home from the war zone. Winsor Josselyn, who went to France with the U. S. Medical Corps, has seen much service, and he has thrilling stories of his observations and experiences to relate. Brother Lewis will be here in a few days.

Imrovement of Ocean Avenue

The matter of street work on Ocean Avenue was fairly well threshed out at last Thursday's meeting of the Board of Trustees and Ocean Avenue property owners.

Notwithstanding a numerously signcurbs and gutters were included. way, presented at the meeting of May 6th, a large majority of the lot owners expressed themselves as in favor of the previously adopted plans for concrete roadways.

Chairman A. P. Fraser made a detailed statement of the preliminary work already consumated for a proper roadway on our main thoroughfare, involving, among other things an expenditure of $600 to $1000 for surveys and preparation of other data. Not to use this data would be a total loss.

The result of the discussion was the unanimous adoption by the board of a motion to empower Chairman Fraser to consult with City Attorney H. C. Jorgensen in the matter of making the necessary provision for calling a bond election to raise from all Carmel property (about four thousand lots), twenty-five per cent of the cost is to be borne directly by the Ocean Avenue owners.

Payments for the work may be extended over a period of nine years. This will not work a hardship on anyone.

French Girl Writes to Carmel Children

St. Simon, Cantal, April 19, 1919.

My Dear Comrades of California:

Mama read it out loud and I have read and re-read it many times. I was so happy and contented that I could not sleep in my bed. I talked all the time of my comrades in Carmel, and I hugged my sister with joy.

I am eight years old, and big and strong. I am always well and have a mother who is very good, and a big sister who will make her first communion in fifteen days, and I will ask of her a special prayer for you. I have also a little brother six years old. All three of us go to school, and I learn pretty well, and the teacher is satisfied.

The Germans killed my papa in 1916. A shell burst in the trench. Mama cried a great deal, and grandma also. She cries all the time and says she will soon go to join her son. He was a good papa and carried m ein his arms. I shall never see him again.

I detest the Germans and wish them harm. I love the Americans and have seen them. They came to buy horses and we children all ran to see them.

They are tall and beautiful and rich.

Cantal Province is in the middle of France, and St. Simon is a village among the mountains situated in o valley. It is not so beautiful as Carmel and the houses are small. A river crosses the valley and there are fish in it—trout—but I have never seen them.

When it rains or the snow falls, the river swells and leaves its course. It comes right to te door of my grandmother's house, and we can not go to see her. She does not live with us, and Jeanne, my sister, goes to stay with her when she is ill. She works and when she is not at home my sister does the cooking and we go to school and to see grandma. Mama wishes that we always have someone to look after us. Jeanne knows how to knit socks and to sew a little. I can knit with two needles. We must not wear out our stockings, for wool costs so much and mama mends them every night.

Our house is a little distance away from the others, and we have four hens, two rabbits and a garden. We go out and hunt for green stuff for the rabbits. There will be more of it in the summer.

I have never seen the ocean—it is too far from here—and perhaps I never shall see it. I am afraid I shall never see the great waves, the green water and the great foam. I shall never be able to know you, although I have loved you since yesterday.

California is a beautiful country and the children are happy there. We are far away, but my letter will come to you there.

Jeanne and mama have helped me to write my letter and the teacher has corrected the faults. We are having vacation, and when I go back to school I shall read your letter to my schoolmates. We have a map of America and the teacher has showed us where California is on the map. The Americans have helped us to finish the war.

Will you permit me to send you a thousand kisses—yes, truly, I embrace each one of you.

Your loving comrade,

CATHERINE CATHALOT.
